Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Monday 04 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wet and windy early and later Tuesday, brighter in between.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining showers should die away into the evening, only to be replaced by a swathe of heavy rain sweeping eastwards on strengthening winds, with coastal gales later in the night. Milder than last night, but tempered by the wind. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tuesday:
Early rain clearing east, with some sunny intervals following for many for a time, however further cloud and rain should spread in later. Windy early and late, especially near coasts. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Becoming drier, warmer and brighter on the whole in this period, with winds also less strong. Wednesday probably brightest. Early fog patches possible Thursday and Friday.
